

COMPOUND SENTENCE

Compound Sentences have two simple sentences or independent clauses that contain related information.

The Independent Clauses are joined together by a comma and a COORDINATING CONJUNCTION.

©Partridge-Jones 2018

Simple Sentence (Independent Clause):

Comma:

Coordinating Conjunction:

Simple Sentence (Independent Clause):

COMPOUND SENTENCE

Compound Sentences have two simple sentences or independent clauses that contain related information.

The Independent Clauses are joined together by a comma and a COORDINATING CONJUNCTION.

©Partridge-Jones 2018

Simple Sentence (Independent Clause):

Comma:

Coordinating Conjunction:

Simple Sentence (Independent Clause):

Name: _____

Write a Compound Sentence

There are two sentences in each group below. Rewrite each group to make a compound sentence.

1. The boy laughed. The girl giggled.

2. The brown squirrel ran up the tree. The dog did not bark.

3. Julie wanted a piece of cake. Her mother said no.

4. It was bedtime. It was still daylight.

5. Do you know Mike? Do you like him?

6. We could go to the movies. We could walk to the park.

7. Her favorite color is green. Her favorite dress is blue.

8. The children played in the yard. Their mothers sat on the bench.
